28th ANNUAL FINE ARTS AND CRAFTS FESTIVAL AT
CODMAN ESTATE
34 Codman Road, Lincoln, MA 01773
SATURDAY, September 11, 2010

The Codman Estate is a historic site in Lincoln, Massachusetts, owned and operated by Historic New England. The Georgian mansion, c.1740, is surrounded by gorgeous grounds featuring a hidden Italian garden, an English cottage garden, open pastures, and a carriage house. The Fine Arts and Crafts Festival is the Codman Estate's largest public program, with all proceeds used for the ongoing preservation and operation of the museum and its grounds. 100 juried exhibitors are accepted.

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS:

| | |
|--------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| Program guide/map listing exhibitors | Museum tours |
| Ample free parking | Raffle - supplied by our exhibitors |
| Indoor restrooms for exhibitors | Musical entertainment |
| Food Vendors | Children's entertainment/Magic show |

- Plant material is accepted only if completely grown by exhibitor
- No shared/sub-leased booths without prior written permission
- Duplicate crafts will be limited as much as possible
- Exhibitors must remain for entire show. No early breakdowns. Please plan for sufficient inventory.

PROCESS: After the application deadline, we convene a jury, which reviews each application based on its own merit and in conjunction with other submissions within the same genre. Prior acceptance in the event is not a guarantee of acceptance into the 2010 event. Each year the jury comprises unbiased individuals and artisans from within the community. Each jury is different from year to year.

FEE for space at the Codman Festival: $75 payable to Historic New England (no commissions)

There will be a $20 service charge for any returned checks. NO MONEY ORDERS PLEASE.
Size of sites will be 10'x12', with some variation according to terrain. Exhibitor booths must fit within the space provided including tent pegs and ropes. Show will take place rain or shine. Exhibitor must provide all necessary materials including chairs and tables. Every display area must be covered by umbrella, canopy, or tent. Nothing can be attached to any museum structure or planting. No electricity available. No generators allowed.

ROSELAND COTTAGE
556 Route 169 Woodstock, CT 06281
Saturday & Sunday, October 16 & 17, 2010

Roseland Cottage (the Henry C. Bowen House) is a historic house museum owned and maintained by Historic New England. The "Pink House" is visibly located on scenic Route 169 in Woodstock, Conn. Our choice of weekend corresponds with the height of the fall colors, homecoming or parents' weekend at local private schools and colleges; this has contributed to the success of the event over the past twenty seven years. Attendance ranges from 8,000 - 10,000 guests. 175 juried exhibitors are accepted. Proceeds from the festival are used for the ongoing operation and maintenance of the museum.

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS:

Program guide/map listing exhibitors
Ample free parking, including overnight parking for exhibitors
Grounds security Friday and Saturday nights
Bed & Breakfast accommodations and church dinner for exhibitors
Indoor Restrooms for exhibitors

Food Vendors
Lunch/relief service
Museum tours, special tour for exhibitors
