

Itinerary for 2009 Program in New England Studies

Monday, June 15

- 9:30 a.m. Breakfast/registration at Otis House Museum
- 10:00 Welcome and orientation
- 10:15 How Colonial New England Became Britain's Pottery Barn
Cary Carson, vice president, research division (retired) Colonial Williamsburg Foundation
- 11:30 Seventeenth-Century Joinery at the River and the Bay
Phil Zea, president, Historic Deerfield, Inc.
- 12:30 p.m. Boxed lunch
- 1:00 Leave for Saugus and Salem, Massachusetts
- 1:30 Tour of c. 1687 Boardman House and 1665 Gedney House
Abbott Lowell Cummings, former director, Historic New England and Cary Carson
- 4:30 Return to Boston
- 6:00 Lecture/reception
America's Kitchens with Nancy Carlisle, curator, Historic New England

Tuesday, June 16

- 7:45 a.m. Depart for Portsmouth, New Hampshire
- 9:00 Eighteenth-Century Architecture
James L. Garvin, state architectural historian, New Hampshire Division of Historical Resources
- 10:30 New England House and Home
Jane C. Nylander, president emerita, Historic New England
- 12:00 p.m. Lunch at 1784 Governor John Langdon House
- 1:00 Tour of Langdon House
Elizabeth Farish, regional site manager
- 2:30 Tour of c. 1716 Warner House
Richard Candee, professor emeritus, Boston University
- 3:15 Depart for Kittery Point, Maine
- 3:45 Tour of 1760 Lady Pepperrell House, Kittery Point, Maine
Joseph Cornish, senior stewardship manager, Historic New England

- 4:45 Return to Portsmouth
- 5:00 Reception at the home of Jane and Richard Nylander
- 6:30 Return to Boston

Wednesday, June 17

- 9:15 a.m. The Height of Elegance or “Ridiculous, Twisted Merchandise?”: Materials, Style and Design in Eighteenth Century American Furniture
Joshua Lane, curator of furniture and academic programs, Historic Deerfield, Inc.
- 10:30 Tour of 1796 Otis House Museum
Richard Nylander, curator emeritus, Historic New England
- 12:30 p.m. Boxed lunch
- 1:15 Depart for Haverhill Collections and Conservation Center
- 2:30 Furniture workshop at Haverhill Collections and Conservation Center
Joshua Lane and Nancy Carlisle
- 5:00 Depart for Boston
- 6:30 Optional walking tour of Beacon Hill
Leah Walczak, regional site manager

Thursday, June 18

- 9:00 a.m. The Architecture and Landscape of Federal New England
J. Ritchie Garrison, director, Winterthur Program in Early American Material Culture, University of Delaware
- 10:00 Federal Furniture in New England
Thomas C. Michie, curator of decorative arts, Los Angeles County Museum of Art
- 11:00 Depart for Peabody Essex Museum, Salem, Massachusetts
- 12:00 p.m. Tour of Pierce Nichols House
- 1:00 Lunch at Hawthorne Hotel in Salem
- 2:00 Tour of 1804 Gardner-Pingree House
Dean Lahikainen, curator of American decorative arts, Peabody Essex Museum
- 3:00 Tour /free time at the Peabody Essex Museum
- 4:00 Return to Boston
- 5:00 Tour of Historic New England’s Library and Archives
Lorna Condon, curator of Library and Archives, Historic New England

Friday, June 19

- 8:00 a.m. Depart for Woodstock, Connecticut
- 10:00 Wild and Colorful: American Victorian Architecture, 1840-1890
Richard Guy Wilson, chair, Department of Architectural History, University of Virginia,
Charlottesville, Virginia
- 11:00 Victorian Furniture: Design Run Amok or Inspired Creativity?
Nancy Carlisle
- 12:00 p.m. Boxed lunch at Roseland Cottage
- 1:00 Tour of 1846 Roseland Cottage
Lisa Centola, site manager
- 2:30 Depart Woodstock for Lincoln, Massachusetts
- 3:30 Tour of c. 1740 Codman House
Richard Nylander and Ben Haavik, team leader for property care, Historic New England
- 5:00 Return to Boston
- 6:00 Reception at the home of Nancy Carlisle

Saturday, June 20

- 9:00 a.m. Imagining Old-Time Domesticity: Colonial Revival Interiors and Furnishings
Cheryl Robertson, independent scholar, museum consultant, and design historian
- 10:00 Creating a History for New England's Architecture: The Colonial Revival from the Civil War to the First World War
Kevin D. Murphy, professor and executive officer, Ph.D. Program in Art History,
CUNY Graduate Center
- 11:00 Depart for Essex, Massachusetts
- 12:00 p.m. Boxed lunch
- 12:30 Tour of 1728 Cogswell's Grant
Richard Nylander and Nancy Carlisle
- 2:00 Depart for Gloucester, Massachusetts
- 2:30 Tour of 1907–37 Beauport, Sleeper McCann House
Richard Nylander and Nancy C. Carlisle
- 4:00 Reception on Beauport terrace
- 5:30 Depart for Boston

HISTORIC[®]
NEW ENGLAND

Defining the past. Shaping the future.