

November 2 and 3 | The VETS, Providence, Rhode Island, and Livestream

Join us today as a Summit Media Partner

Inspiration. Ideas. Solutions. Connections.

The Historic New England Summit is the region's largest conference on preservation and sustainability. Leading voices from the region, nation, and around the globe will discuss timely issues related to building resilient and livable communities. Join us as a media partner to receive visibility, recognition, and access beginning now and throughout the conference. Contact Susanna Crampton at scrampton@HistoricNewEngland.org or 617-994-5955 to discuss your partnership opportunity.

What we offer

In exchange for advance promotion of the Summit through your print and digital channels and coverage of the Summit program, you'll receive:

- Recognition in all Summit print and digital materials, including your logo on the Summit website
- Visibility in all Summit email promotions distributed to more than 42,000 highly engaged individuals, industry professionals, and community leaders who enjoy discovering the region's stories and support the transformative impact of preservation on sustainability and livability
- Recognition on Historic New England's social media platforms with outreach to more than 80,000 Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram followers
- VIP access to the conference hospitality area and the exclusive opening reception
- Display visibility throughout the Summit at our Partner table
- Two full-access in-person Summit passes

Who You'll Reach

More than 600 registrants joined us at Summit 2022, including

- 150+ nonprofit organizations and universities
- Representatives from federal, state, and local governments
- Architectural, engineering, landscape design, and preservation firms
- Conservationists and urban planners
- Leaders in arts and culture, education, and public history
- Philanthropists and community leaders and advocates

Summit Program Themes

- Sustainability and climate change
- Cultural and artistic heritage
- Community advocacy
- Reframing history education
- Affordable housing and urban development
- The future of New England cities

About Historic New England

Historic New England is the largest and most comprehensive independent preservation organization in the US and welcomes the public to thirty-eight exceptional museums and landscapes, including several coastal farms. The organization operates a major collections and archives center in Haverhill, Massachusetts, and has the world's largest collection of New England artifacts, comprising more than 125,000 decorative arts and objects, and 1.5 million archival documents including photographs, architectural drawings, manuscripts, and ephemera. Engaging education programs for youth, adults, and preservation professionals, and award-winning exhibitions and publications are offered in person and virtually. The Historic New England Preservation Easement program is a national leader and protects 120 privately owned historic properties throughout the region.

Please contact Susanna Crampton at scrampton@HistoricNewEngland.org or 617-994-5955 to discuss media partnership opportunities